SEC. 2. That the boards of commissioners of the said counties of Durham and Wake shall cause the said line to be distinctly and definitely located, surveyed, and marked, according to the rules for settling a disputed county line prescribed by the general law of the State, within six months from the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

Line to be located, surveyed and marked.

SEC. 3. That of the amount of bonded indebtedness outstanding against Wake County, the territory transferred by this act, and the county of Durham, shall assume liability and are hereby declared liable for the proportion of such present bonded indebtedness of Wake County that the taxable valuation of the property within the territory transferred bears to the taxable valuation of the property within the county as heretofore constituted, as shown by the tax books of the said county of Wake for the year one thousand nine hundred and ten. And a commission shall be created consisting at first of two persons, one of whom shall be appointed by the county commissioners of Durham County and the other by the county commissioners of Wake County, whose duty it shall be to ascertain definitely the amount of such bonded indebtedness for which the said territory and the county of Durham are liable to the county of Wake, and the manner in which such liability shall be liquidated. In the event that the two persons thus appointed fail to agree, a third person, not a resident of either county, shall be appointed by the Governor, and the decision of any two of such commissioners shall be final.

Apportionment of bonded debt

Commissioners for apportionment.

SEC. 4. That all unadjusted claims growing out of the location of any public road through the territory described in section one of this act shall be assumed and paid by the county of Durham when reduced to judgment rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
